At the Court at St. James's, January 10. 1711.

PRESENT,

The Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day Her Majeſty was pleas'd to appoint the following Sheriffs, viz.

| | |
|---|---|
| Bedfordſhire | Thomas Boſwel of Dean, Eſq; |
| Bucks | Rich. Szar of Great Miſſenden, Eſq; |
| Cheſhire | John Leche of Cuvarden, Eſq; |
| Lincoln | James Cholmondeley, Eſq; |
| Stafford | Leigh Brookes, Eſq; |

St. James's, January 10. This Evening Monſieur Marſchalſch de Bieberſteyn, Miniſter of State and Plenipotentiary from his Pruſſian Majeſty, had his firſt Private Audience of Her Majeſty; to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honourable Henry St. John, Eſq; one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, January 11. Her Majeſty has been graciouſly pleas'd to appoint his Grace the Duke of Beaufort to be Captain of the Band of Penſioners.

Milan, January 2. N. S. Abraham Stanyan, Eſq; the Queen of Great Britain's Plenipotentiary for arbitrating and determining, in Conjunction with the Plenipotentiary of the States-General, ſeveral Differences between the Emperor and the Duke of Savoy, arriv'd here the Twenty-ninth of the laſt Month. Monſieur Vander Meer, Plenipotentiary of the States-General for the ſame Arbitration, is likewiſe arriv'd; and the Miniſters on the part of the King of Spain, being two Milaneze of the Regency, and his Royal Highneſs's Miniſter being come hither, it is expected the Conferences will be open'd in a few Days.

Hanover, Jan. 8. N. S. An Officer is arriv'd here ſome Days ago, to requeſt a Paſſage for eight Regiments that came from Silefia, which made part of the Body deſign'd for the Preſervation of the Neutrality in the North. A Gentleman belonging to Mr. Whitworth, Ambaſſador of Her Britannick Majeſty, went hence Yeſterday, not doubting but he ſhould find his Maſter with the Czar at Peterſburg. We have no Advices here that the Confederate Army had quitted the Camp before Stralſund; the Letters of the Second ſay only, that they had thrown ſome red-hot Bullets into the Place; that the King of Poland would go thence upon the Third in his Return to Dreſden; and, that he had promiſed to be at Warſaw before Eaſter.

Bruſſels, Jan. 18. N. S. Letters of the Fifteenth from Bouchain bring an Account, that the Governor, Major-General Groveſtein, having Notice that a great Number of Waggons, laden with Forrage, was on the way to Cambray, under a Guard of Two hundred and fifty Men, detach'd Colonel Savery, with a part of the Garriſon of Bouchain, to intercept them; in which Enterprize he ſucceeded ſo well, that all the Waggons were taken, and their Guard ſurrender'd Priſoners of War. The Advices from Paris of the Twelfth ſay, Letters were arriv'd there from Spain, aſſuring that Count Muret had been oblig'd to raiſe the Siege of the Caſtle of Cardona with great Precipitation, and leave his Cannon behind him. It is reported, that Count Staremberg reliev'd that Place in Perſon, with a great part of his Army: The further Particulars of what paſs'd on that Occaſion, are expected here by the next Letters from France.

Utrecht, January 19. N. S. The Plenipotentiaries appointed by the High Allies to Treat with thoſe of France for a General Peace, begin to Aſſemble at this Place. My Lord Privy-Seal came hither on the Fifteenth, and the Earl of Strafford on the Seventeenth, each of them accompanied by a conſiderable number of Britiſh Perſons of Quality, who deſign to ſtay here during the Congreſs. Yeſterday in the Afternoon Meſſieurs Buys and Ronſwoude, two of the Plenipotentiaries of the States came hither, and immediately waited on my Lord Privy-Seal and the Earl of Strafford. This Morning about Eleven, the Mareſchal D'Uxelles, the Abbot Polignac, and Monſieur Meſnager, the French Plenipotentiaries arriv'd here. My Lord Privy-Seal and the Earl of Strafford, after having been with the two Plenipotentiaries of the States to return their Viſit, went to ſee thoſe of France, at the Mareſchal D'Uxelles's Houſe, where they were all three together; they receiv'd their Lordſhips at their Coaches, and conducted them thither again. About Four in the Afternoon the French Plenipotentiaries return'd their Lordſhips Viſit, and were receiv'd in like manner.

Hague, January 19. N. S. The Plenipotentiaries Nominated by the States for the Con-
